

八下 语法填空 专项练习

—

I was at a restaurant eating my dinner. And there was a father ___1___(sit) with his two young girls. The girls were asking about everything and anything. I was ___2___(interest) in their endless questions.

One of the ___3___(girl) looked at me and asked her father, “Daddy, ___4___ is she wearing that?” As a foreigner in this country, I still ___5___(wear) my national dress every day, so I often heard people talk about me.

Her father said something that made my heart so warm. He said, “There are different countries, cultures and languages ___6___ the world. We all have to learn about them.” He then shared a ___7___(person) experience with his daughter. He said, “You know what, girls? I lived abroad and learned ___8___(speak) Spanish many years ago. I really learned a lot. When you grow up, you must go to visit different countries. That ___9___(be) amazing!”

This is how parents should teach their children love, acceptance, understanding and respect. It starts from ___10___ early age. Children copy the way their parents talk and do thing. They are their role models.

二

My name is Robinson Crusoe. I was born in the old city of York, where there is a river, with ships coming and going. My father was a ___1___(success) businessman. He gave me a good ___2___(educate) and I was expected to be a lawyer.

However, I wanted ___3___(go) to sea. My father was very angry with me. He didn't understand ___4___ I wanted to leave his house, where I would have ___5___ easy and comfortable life. “Only the very poor people and the very rich people go to sea,” he said. “The poor ___6___(be) foolish, having no other ways to live. The rich own ships and can make money with them. You are neither too poor ___7___ too rich, so you should stay at home. ___8___ you don't listen to me, you will have a difficult life!”

I argued with my parents for nearly a year. Then, I ___9___(go) to Hull with a friend who was going to London. He invited me to go with him ___10___ ship, and I agreed. I didn't even tell my parents where I was going. I just went. That was how all my bad luck began.

三

In the UK, netball(无板篮球) is a popular sport, but it's only for girls. In England, about 1.4 million people, ____1____(main) women and girls, play netball every week, according to Sport England. I myself love netball a lot. Since the first year of junior school, I ____2____(be) a member of my school team and also my local team, Woodford Warriors.

Netball is a sport with seven players on a team. We need to score by throwing the ball through a hoop(篮筐) 3.05 ____3____(meter) high. Unlike basketball, the netball hoop has no backboard and is much ____4____(small). The seven players each have a place and can only stay in ____5____(they) areas.

Playing netball is great for my physical health. It also ____6____(teach) me life lessons. For example, because of the restriction(限制) of movement, sometimes you need to step back ____7____ let other people handle(处理) things. You don't always have to stay at the front to play ____8____ important role.

Also, my team and I share something that I cannot share ____9____ my other friends, because we work together to win a game. A netball player must be able ____10____(tell) which direction(方向) others will drive out and when they will jump to catch the ball and much more. This friendship is amazing.

四

Yellowstone National Park is ____1____ U.S. national park which was built in 1872. It covers about 9,065 square kilometers and is one of ____2____(large) parks in America.

Yellowstone is widely seen as the first national park in the world and it is famous ____3____ its wildlife. Native(土著的) Americans ____4____(live) in the Yellowstone for at least 11,000 years. There were some visits by mountain men during the early-to-mid-19th century. Later, the U.S. Army began to protect the park and tried hard to make it ____5____(peace). In 1917, the National Park Service(国家公园管理) built ____6____(hundred) of buildings there. Now, these buildings are ____7____(real) important for the study about American history.

Some people don't know ____8____ to do in the Yellowstone when they pay their first visit. Actually, there are many fun activities in the park, such as hiking, ____9____(camp) and sightseeing. Everybody could find something interesting to do there. So it is really a good choice for us ____10____(take) a trip to the Yellowstone National Park.