I'm Martin. I'm a middle school student in England. The buildings in my school are all blue.

Walk into the school, and you can see a big garden in front of you. There are green trees and red flowers in it. Behind the garden, that's our classroom building. It is between a library and a playground. In the classroom building, there're two science labs, four computer rooms, a theatre room and thirty classrooms. In each(每一个) classroom, there are desks, chairs and a big TV.

After school, some students go to the library to read books. Some go to the playground to play football. And some go to the theatre room to watch plays. I like going to the theatre room with my friends. I like our school.

1. What colour are the buildings in Martin's school?
A. Red. B. White. C. Blue. D. Green.

2. Which is Martin's school?

3. Where does Martin like going after school?
A. To the library. B. To the playground.
C. To the sports hall. D. To the theatre room.
4. What is the passage mainly about?
A. Martin's country. B. Martin's school.
C. Martin's friends. D. Martin's classroom.

Dear Jerry,

How are you? I'm in New York, at the International School of English. I'm in Class 4 with seven other students. They are from different countries. They are nice and friendly. We often do sports after class. But I can't play any ball games. They are too hard for me. Paul is our teacher. He is a good teacher.

I live with a host(寄宿) family. Mr. and Mrs. Hill have three children. Kate is sixteen, Dam is thirteen and Hunter is eight. They all like me. They like to talk with me but I can't understand(理解) their English.

New York is a very big city in America. It's cool now and the parks are beautiful. I like the food very much.

Please write to me.

Every school has its rules(规定). Here are some school rules in different countries.

Japanese rules

Most Japanese schools ask the students to wear school clothes. In many Japanese schools, if the schools don't know, students can't go to the cinema, leave home in the evening or play computer games.

Different shoes in the USA

In some schools, students must wear indoor(室内的) shoes at school every day. So the students can't fall down(倒下), and they are safe on the floors. Students can't eat gum(口香糖) in school, because it is hard to clean.

No strange hair in the UK
